

Courses in the Community

Explore Theology | Grow Spiritually | Learn in Community

Sabbath as Rest and Resistance

April 27 - May 18, 2023
Thursdays, 7:00-8:30 PM ET
Online

This course explores the biblical theology of Sabbath as well as the purpose, place, and practice of Sabbath in Christian faith formation. We will come to understand the ancient practice of Sabbath keeping as more than just a good idea for managing busyness or a way of taking more time off on the weekends. Rather, we will explore Sabbath as both a divine gift and a social mandate that extends to us a disruptive and daring invitation to embrace restorative rest, holy inefficiency, meaningful play, and the call to justice.

with Dr. Ryan Bonfiglio

Register by April 27
bit.ly/sabbathspring2023

Meet the Instructor

Dr. Ryan Bonfiglio teaches Old Testament at Emory's Candler School of Theology and serves as the Director of The Candler Foundry. He teaches courses on a range of topics including biblical metaphors, the prophets, Old Testament theology, the Bible and poverty, and biblical interpretation. He previously taught at Columbia Theological Seminary and served as a scholar in residence at First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta. He was born and raised in Philadelphia and has degrees from Princeton University (BA), Princeton Theological Seminary (M.Div.), and Emory University (PhD).

THE
CANDLER
FOUNDRY

CONTACT US

candlerfoundry@emory.edu
404-727-3324