MOMENT FOR REFLECTION

Psalm 51:7-15

Purify me from my sins, and I will be clean;

wash me, and I will be brighter than snow.

Oh, give me back my joy again;

you have broken me—

now let me rejoice.

Don't keep looking at my sins.

Remove the stain of my guilt.

Create in me a clean heart, O God.

Renew a loyal spirit within me.

Do not banish me from your presence,

and don't take your Holy Spirit from me.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

Then I will teach your ways to rebels, and they will return to you.

Forgive me for shedding blood, O God who saves;

then I will joyfully sing of your forgiveness.

Unseal my lips, O Lord,

that my mouth may praise you.

WORDS OF WELCOME Barbara Callaghan & David C Clark

CALL TO WORSHIP The Lord Is My Light . . Taizé chant by Jacques Berthier

The Lord is my light, my light and sal-va-tion: in God I trust, in God I trust.

PRAYERS OF INVOCATION Barbara Callaghan

*OPENING HYMN Be Thou My Vision #445

INTRODUCTION TO THE PROCLAMATION David C Clark

Service of Worship

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD Barbara Callaghan
Mark 7:1-8, 14 & 15, 20-23

One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating. (The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands, as required by their ancient traditions. Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to—such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.)

So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, “Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony.”

Jesus replied, “You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote,

‘These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God!
For you ignore God's law and substitute your own tradition.’

Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “All of you listen,” he said, “and try to understand. It's not what goes into your body that defiles you; you are defiled by what comes from your heart.”

And then he added, “It is what comes from inside that defiles you. For from within, out of a person's heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you.”

One: The Word of God, for the People of God.

Many: Thanks be to God!

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE. . Alleluia, God Is Still Speaking. . . by Mark Morgan

The image shows two staves of musical notation for a congregational response. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. Below the staff, the lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! God is still speak-ing, al - le - lu - ia!". The second staff begins with a measure rest marked with a '9', indicating it starts at measure 9 of the first staff. It continues with the same melody and lyrics: "Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! God is still speak-ing, al - le - lu - ia!".

OFFERTORY Cantique de Jean Racine by Gabriel Faure

Chancel Choir

O Redeemer divine, our sole hope of salvation,

Eternal light of the earth and the sky,

We kneel in adoration, O Savior,

Turn on us Thy loving eye.

Send down on us the fire of Thy grace all consuming,

Whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell,

And rouse our slumbering souls within Thy radiance,

That they may waken Thy mercy to tell.

O Christ bestow Thy blessing on us, we implore Thee,

Who here are gathered on penitent knee,

Accept the hymns we chant to Thine eternal glory

And these Thy gifts we return unto Thee.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

My soul hath a desire and longing To enter into the courts of the Lord: My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.	The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork.

CALLING NEW USHERS!

Hancock seeks to replenish usher teams in February!

Please consider involving yourself as a Hancock usher. The commitment is minimal, the impact is significant. Here's what you need to know:

- We run five rotating usher teams
- Every five weeks, you will receive an email from your usher team leader to see if you are available to usher/greet on the following Sunday
- If you can help that week, we would ask that you return an affirming email and arrive at Hancock by 9:30am for set up, and stay for 10 minutes after the service to help with the service clean up
- There are No usher meetings, No usher phone calling.....just the important role of greeting your church family and getting to know your Hancock community on a deeper level.

If you can help out, please contact Brian Keeping at BCKeeping72@gmail.com or 781-953-3162. Thank you!

MORNING OFFERING

Each week at Hancock we accept an offering of gifts for two purposes:

Mission Partner of the Week: Each Sunday we accept gifts for one of our mission partners, a select organization doing God's work in the world. Many are local or regional organizations with whom we've worked with for years. All are effective organizations making a difference in people's lives. These donations are passed directly to the organization in addition to the donations included in Hancock's budget.

Sustaining Hancock's Vision: Gifts are also welcome in the Sunday offering plate for Hancock Church that support our staff, our building, community outreach, and all of the worship and programs at Hancock.

You may make a gift for either in one of three ways:

- Through our website. Go to www.hancockchurch.org, click on the Give button in the upper right, and follow the instructions to make a gift by credit or debit card, or ACH bank transfer. Be sure to indicate in the dropdown menu whether the gift is for "Mission Partner" or "Hancock Church."
- Send a check. Make it payable to Hancock UCC, and note on the memo line either "Mission Partner" or "Hancock." Our address is 1912 Massachusetts Ave., Lexington, MA 02421.
- Text to give. From your smart phone or tablet, text the dollar amount along with "Mission" or "Hancock" to 781-386-0866 and tap the link to enter your credit card information.

THE WEEKLY OFFERING

The LGBT Asylum Task Force is a church ministry that was formed in Worcester in 2008. The Task Force welcomes LGBTQ people of all faith traditions as it provides housing, food, and connection to legal, medical, and mental health resources at other local agencies. This vital ministry provides comprehensive support for the entire two-years in which in which asylum seekers are not allowed to work.

Asylum seekers seek protection from torture and abuse that is happening in their home countries. They must have faced persecution or have a well-founded fear of persecution because of race, religion, nationality, or membership in a particular social group, or political opinion. "Particular social group" has been interpreted to include the LGBTQ community. Several Ugandan LGBTQ asylum seekers in Worcester have reported that they were tortured, and that individuals they knew were tortured and murdered after being arrested by police.

HARMONY ON THE GREEN PRESENTS: ANTJE DUVEKOT!

Saturday, March 2, 2024

Antje Duvekot has solidified her reputation as one of Boston's top singer songwriters with "Big Dream Boulevard," her debut studio release, and "the Near Demise of the Highwire Dancer" and "New Siberia," her follow-up albums. The debut CD was produced by Seamus Egan, founder of the Irish super group SOLAS, and the project was released on songwriter Ellis Paul's label and quickly attracted international attention for Antje.

Opening the show is eclectic singer-songwriter and pianist Eva Gertz who hails from Melrose, MA, and was raised by artsy parents. Introspective, honest lyrics and a moody Joni Mitchell-informed writing style flow expressively like the characteristic Jewish curls atop her head. For more information, please go to HancockChurch.org/coffeehouse.

All concerts start at 7:30pm in Clark Hall at Hancock Church. Tickets are $20 or pay what you can.

SAVE THE DATE FOR A JOYFUL NOYSE ON MAY 19!

UPDATE FROM THE ANNUAL GIVING COMMITTEE

Thanks to so many of you, the annual gifts that fund all of our good work and worship for the coming year are flowing in. And, for that, thank you so much from the Giving Committee!

The bar chart, below, captures commitment data as of Dec. 29, 2023. The numbers are good, but we are hoping for better. You will see that for 2024 we are lagging behind 2023 and 2022, both in the number of gifts and the amounts committed in each year. The goal we need to meet this year is $725,000, and we are currently about $221,000 short of that.

If you intend to give, and we very much hope you will, we would greatly appreciate your letting the church know of your plans for 2024. Your commitments make a huge difference in the church's ability to plan for the good work ahead. And, please remember that in addition to the good work you help fund within Hancock, these gifts also help support our mission partners beyond these walls throughout the year.

We recognize that for some it may be difficult to make a commitment of the size you might wish, and we understand that. We also understand that circumstances change through the year, and, if needed, adjustments can be made. Right now, in asking for your plans, we simply ask for you to place your financial gifts where your heart is in the good work, ministry and community of Hancock Church. If you are fortunate enough to be able to consider increasing your gift, that would be greatly appreciated.

As we wrap up the annual appeal next month, we ask you to let the church know of your giving plans for 2024 by selecting one of the following three giving options:

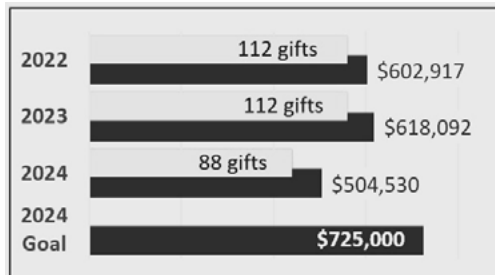

- on Hancock's website, click "give" and complete the 2024 commitment form
- or drop your completed 2024 commitment card in the secure box outside of Suzie Barry's office (commitment cards are available in the narthex)
- or email Financial.Administrator@HancockChurch.org

Together we are changing the world through love, compassion, and courage. Thank you!

Hancock Covenant of Welcome

We welcome all who seek to know God.

We believe that, although we are many members, we are one body in Christ.

We have been called as well as challenged by God to respect and reconcile our differences.

We recognize and love each individual as a child of God.

We welcome, respect, support, and lovingly encourage people of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, gender, sexual orientation, age, and physical and mental ability to join us on our journey of faith.

The faith journey indeed calls Hancock Members not to be silent in the face of prejudice, injustice, and exclusion, but to express our faith, in word and deed, for justice and inclusiveness for all humanity.

As Paul wrote in Galatians, "In Christ there is no longer Jew or Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for all are one..."
