MOMENT FOR REFLECTION

Now is the Time by Hafiz

Now is the time to know
That all that you do is sacred.

Now, why not consider
A lasting truce with yourself and God.

Now is the time to understand
That all your ideas of right and wrong
Were just a child's training wheels
To be laid aside
When you finally live
With veracity
And love.

Hafiz is a divine envoy
Whom the Beloved
Has written a holy message upon.

My dear, please tell me,
Why do you still

Throw sticks at your heart
And God?

What is it in that sweet voice
inside
That incites you to fear?

Now is the time for the world to know
That every thought and action is sacred.

This is the time
For you to compute the impossibility
That there is anything
But Grace.

Now is the season to know
That everything you do
Is sacred.

CALL TO WORSHIP. Here and Now. .by Mary Kay Beall and John Carter

Here and now, here and now, speak to me in a still, small voice.

Here and now, here and now, speak, Lord, to me.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION. David C Clark

OPENING HYMN Christ is Made the Sure Foundation (see insert pg. 19)

INTRODUCTION TO THE PROCLAMATION. Barbara Callaghan

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD Barbara Callaghan & David C Clark

ACTS 18:1-4

AFTER this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, and, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together—by trade they were tentmakers. Every sabbath he would argue in the synagogue and would try to convince Jews and Greeks.

1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you should be in agreement and that there should be no divisions among you, but that you should be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, 'I belong to Paul', or 'I belong to Apollos', or 'I belong to Cephas', or 'I belong to Christ.' Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

One: The Word of God, for the People of God.

Many: Thanks be to God!

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE Come, Christians, Join To Sing

Come, Christians, join to sing: Alleluia! Amen!
Loud praise to Christ we bring:
Alleluia! Amen!

Let all with heart and voice,
With hymns of thanks rejoice;
Praise we with grateful choice:
Alleluia! Amen!

*PASSING OF THE PEACE Barbara Callaghan

ONE: The Peace of Christ be with you

MANY: And also with you!

GATHERING SONG Guide My Feet

Guide my feet, while I run this race (3 times)
For I don't want to run this race in vain.

Hold my hand, while I run this race (3 times)
For I don't want to run this race in vain

OFFERTORY Lo! What An Entertaining Sight
tune: TOPSFIELD, by Jacob Kimball (1761-1826)

Note: Jacob Kimball was one of the earliest truly American composers. He lived in Topsfield and participated in the Battle of Lexington, which took place across the street.

Lo! What an entertaining sight are kindred who agree;	'Tis like the oil, divinely sweet, On Aa-ron's rev'-rend head,
Whose hands with cheerful hearts unite in bonds of piety.	the trick-ling drops perfum'd his feet, and o'er his garments spread.
When streams of love from Christ the spring Descend to ev'ry soul,	'Tis plea-sant as the morning dews that fall on Zion's hill,
And heav'n-ly peace with balmy wing, Shades and be-dews the whole.	Where God His mildest glory shows, And makes his grace dis-til.

*DOXOLOGY

From north and south and east and west
May God's eternal name be blessed!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Till everywhere beneath the sun
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia!

PRAYER OF DEDICATION David C Clark

PASTORAL PRAYER..... David C Clark

TIME OF SILENT PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

ANTHEM Divine Goodness arr. by Alice Parker
Chancel Choir

Give to the winds thy fears,
hope and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

Through waves and clouds and storms,
He gently clears the way;

wait thou His time, so shall this night
soon end in joyous day.

Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear when fully He the work hath wrought, that caused thy needless fear.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE: ALMOST THERE!

Thank you for your additional pledges to Hancock's capital campaign. We have received sufficient pledge commitments towards a ground source geothermal system that it is clearly within reach, and we will proceed to the design stage. The more detailed design will allow us to develop more accurate cost estimates, and we will report back to the congregation at that point. Our hope is that current pledges will suffice, but if not we will consider how best to cover the gap.

If you have questions about any aspect of the Capital Campaign, contact one of the committee members for more information: Carol Bukys, Al Bukys, Joan Rutila, or David Zenk.

MORNING OFFERING

Each week at Hancock we accept an offering of gifts for two purposes:

Mission Partner of the Week: Each Sunday we accept gifts for one of our mission partners, a select organization doing God's work in the world. Many are local or regional organizations with whom we've worked with for years. All are effective organizations making a difference in people's lives. These donations are passed directly to the organization in addition to the donations included in Hancock's budget.

Sustaining Hancock's Vision: Gifts are also welcome in the Sunday offering plate for Hancock Church that support our staff, our building, community outreach, and all of the worship and programs at Hancock.

You may make a gift for either in one of three ways:

- Through our website. Go to www.hancockchurch.org, click on the Give button in the upper right, and follow the instructions to make a gift by credit or debit card, or ACH bank transfer. Be sure to indicate in the dropdown menu whether the gift is for "Mission Partner" or "Hancock Church."
- Send a check. Make it payable to Hancock UCC, and note on the memo line either "Mission Partner" or "Hancock." Our address is 1912 Massachusetts Ave., Lexington, MA 02421.
- Text to give. From your smart phone or tablet, text the dollar amount along with "Mission" or "Hancock" to 781-386-0866 and tap the link to enter your credit card information.

THE WEEKLY OFFERING

This week's mission partner is Neighborhood of Affordable Housing (NOAH). Climate change affects our communities with high temperatures, flooding, and rising tides. Our neighbors in East Boston are particularly vulnerable, due in part to the scarcity of healthy trees and open space. This part of the city is considered a "heat island" and has only 7% tree canopy coverage, compared to Boston's city-wide average of 27% and Lexington's 60%. Trees help lower temperatures, clean the air, and offer shade, habitat, and beauty. NOAH in East Boston is a non-profit dedicated to addressing housing scarcity, food insecurity, air pollution, and climate change. Our offering today will support NOAH's climate change focus, helping to establish a healthy tree canopy by planting, watering, and protecting trees. NOAH's tree campaign is spearheaded by its youth leadership program, which provides local teens with experience in leadership, community organizing, and environmental stewardship. In addition, this Sunday a team of Hancock volunteers will go to East Boston to work with NOAH on trees and plantings and to make strong connections with our NOAH neighbors. Contact Linda Kilner Olivier at lakilner@aol.com to join us in the outing! See (noahcdc.org) for more information. Please refer to the Hancock Weekly for more details.

Thank you for your continued support of these important organizations.

#PracticingResurrection

In the 50 days following Easter we get to linger in the glow of new life. The season is called Eastertide. This is a great chance to practice co-authoring our own resurrection story with God. How are you finding resurrection in these days? Share with us your own ways of practicing resurrection now. See the video below and email your own resurrection practices. Send your story to bethany@hancockchurch.org. We'd love it if you included a picture or a video, if you're so inclined. As a community, let's see how we are doing this together. As Wendell Berry said, "Be like the fox who makes more tracks than necessary, some in the wrong direction.

Practice resurrection." Try new things, don't be afraid to be imperfect, experiment, be a little daring, have fun.

Peace,
Barbara

Come after Church on May 5th — two big events! Stay for one or both

COME ONE, COME ALL, FOR A VEGETARIAN FEAST! SUNDAY, MAY 5TH, RIGHT AFTER CHURCH, IN THE DINING ROOM

Hey, Hancock Eaters! What do Mac-and-Cheese, Jambalaya with Impossible Sausage, Vegetarian Moussaka, Spinach Lasagna, Mujadara (a Middle Eastern rice and lentil dish) and luscious salads and desserts of all types have in common? These, and many more equally-delicious dishes are vegetarian and will be part of the upcoming Vegetarian Lunch on Sunday, May 5th, right after church. Hancock cooks and bakers, partnering with members of HEAT, are joining forces to show how you can eat really well and eat less meat -- a very good thing for the climate, and for you.

Please plan on coming. If you would like to join in the fun of cooking/baking, please let Sally Wyman (scwyman@gmail.com) know -- but, again, come with or without bringing anything, just for the fun, yum, recipes and community of enjoying a meal together!

SAVE THE DATE - SUNDAY, MAY 5, 2024 AT 12:00 PM IN THE DINING ROOM

On May 5th, Florence Reed, Founder of Sustainable Harvest International, will be visiting Hancock!! She will bring us news of the impactful agricultural development work that we have sponsored in La Concepcion, Honduras. On that day, please plan to join the vegetarian lunch directly after church and followed by a short SHI program and meet and greet and with Flo at noon.

Flo will share her remarkable success in alleviating hunger in Central American communities in a sustainable way that conserves precious rainforests and restores valuable ecosystems.

We are hoping that SHI's work will inspire you to consider participating in an upcoming SHI service trip to Honduras where we plan to celebrate with the La Concepcion community their graduation from SHI's program.

This word cloud collects the many dozens of comments that you pinned to the honeycomb board on Celebration Sunday. Our work is not done! Our commitments to date have achieved 78% of our goal for funding Hancock's weekly operations through the program year.

Hancock Covenant of Welcome

We welcome all who seek to know God.

We believe that, although we are many members, we are one body in Christ.

We have been called as well as challenged by God to respect and reconcile our differences.

We recognize and love each individual as a child of God.

We welcome, respect, support, and lovingly encourage people of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, gender, sexual orientation, age, and physical and mental ability to join us on our journey of faith.

The faith journey indeed calls Hancock Members not to be silent in the face of prejudice, injustice, and exclusion, but to express our faith, in word and deed, for justice and inclusiveness for all humanity.

As Paul wrote in Galatians, "In Christ there is no longer Jew or Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for all are one..."
